

Father's Day is 100. But what it should mean never gets old.

On this centennial of Father's Day, men everywhere are taking a stand to end violence against women and children around the world.

In 2003, we started Founding Fathers to show our commitment to teaching respect and creating futures without violence. Join us and let's make this day the beginning of a safer world.

Today we honor these "founding fathers" who intend for this crucial beginning to give way to a new kind of society – where decency and respect require no special day on the calendar, where boys are taught that violence does not equal strength and where men stand with courage, lead with conviction and speak with one voice to say, "No more."
